DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-31—O-31]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

Whereas, under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, notice of hearing is required in connection with proposed amendments to a marketing agreement or an order and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the walnut Control Board, established by the order regulating the handling of walnuts grown in the States of California, Oregon, and Washington, has submitted certain amendments to the said marketing agreement and order, and requested that a hearing be held on the said amendments;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and the said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in room 113, Agricultural Hall, University of California, Berkeley, California, on June 24, 1936, at 9:30 a. m., and thereafter until concluded, at which time interested parties will be heard with reference to proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of walnuts grown in the States of California, Oregon, and Washington, to be executed and issued under the said act.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the necessity for, and the advisability of, amending the said marketing agreement and order so as (1) to eliminate those provisions authorizing the payment of credit values in lieu of the delivery of the surplus percentage of walnuts to the Control Board, (2) to continue a surplus percentage fixed by the Secretary until a new surplus percentage is fixed by him, (3) to provide for liquidated damages for the failure of a handler to satisfy his obligation to deliver the surplus percentage of walnuts when such delivery has been deferred, (4) to establish a method of fixing the amount of bond to be given by a handler in connection with his deferred delivery of the surplus percentage, and (5) to add new pack specifications to Exhibit A. Evidence as to the necessity and advisability of such other amendments as may be presented at the hearing will be received.

Copies of the amendments to the said marketing agreement and order proposed by the walnut Control Board may be inspected in or procured from the office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 4725, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

REDUCED FARES FOR BENEFICIARIES OF VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION TRAVELING AT OWN EXPENSE

9040. In accordance with the terms of the various tariffs issued by the rail carriers, beneficiaries will be supplied requests for reduced fares upon railroad companies offering such fares in these circumstances, where for any reason government transportation is not authorized: Approved admissions for or discharges from hospital treatment or domiciliary care, including readmissions after discharge for infraction of facility discipline; leaves of absence, trial visits or furloughs, to destination and return to facility; approved interfacility transfers; discharges for infraction of facility discipline, or discharges upon request from hospital or domiciliary care. Reduced fares will not be granted beneficiaries whose requests for interfacility transfer has been disapproved because no sound medical or other reason exists for the transfer. The provisions of this paragraph apply equally to beneficiaries admitted to or receiving hospital or domiciliary care in facilities under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration, or those admitted to or receiving hospital treatment in other government, state, or civil hospitals upon authorization of the Veterans' Administration. (June 17, 1936.)

ORTHOPEDIC AND PROSTHETIC APPLIANCES

R-6115 (G) Retired officers and enlisted men of the regular establishment.—

(1) In compliance with an executive order, effective December 1, 1930, relieving the Surgeon General of the Army of this duty, the Veterans' Administration under the provisions of Chapter 5, Sections 241 to 250, Title 38, U. S. Code, as amended, may provide an artificial limb or apparatus or commutation in lieu thereof, once every three years for each retired officer or enlisted man of the regular establishments, who shall have lost a limb or the use thereof through injury or disease incurred in line of duty in the military or naval service at any time; and to every civilian employee of the military or naval services who shall have lost a limb or the use thereof, through injury or disease incurred in line of duty as such, prior to September 7, 1916 (date of the United States Employees' Compensation Act). An army nurse is considered a civilian employee within the meaning of the statute cited.

(4) Trusses will be supplied every retired officer and enlisted man of the regular establishments who is ruptured in any war; and, upon application, replacement of a truss will be made when it becomes useless from wear, destruction, or loss, provided that such application will not be made more than once in two and one-half years. When an applicant communicates with central office requesting an artificial limb, appliance, or truss, and his eligibility therefor has been established, the regional office or facility nearest his home will be instructed to contact him and procure for him, from one of the approved contractors of that office or facility, or the approved bidder, the appliance necessary.
